When families complete this form, you will be committing your child to either remote-only or hybrid learning, and to a transportation plan, for the second marking period. Secondary parents will have an opportunity to change their child's instructional and/or transportation model again in January. On October 17, we sent important information about each of these models so that parents can make an informed choice for their child's learning. The schedules are linked below.

*Please note that secondary students enrolled in the remote-only program will follow the hybrid bell schedule on Monday, Tuesday, Thursday, and Friday. All secondary students will follow the Remote Only bell schedule on Wednesdays.
