Text-Analysis Response

Your Task: Closely read the text of Atticus' closing speech to the jury and write a well-developed, text-based response of four paragraphs. In your response, identify a central idea in the text and analyze how the author's use of one writing strategy (literary element or literary technique or rhetorical device) develops this central idea. Use strong and thorough evidence from the text to support your analysis. Do not simply summarize the text. You may use the margins to take notes as you read and scrap paper to plan your response.

Guidelines:

Be sure to:

- Identify a central idea in the text.
- Analyze how the author's use of one writing strategy (literary element or literary technique or rhetorical device) develops this central idea. Example include: characterization, conflict, denotation/connotation, metaphor, simile, irony, language use, point-of-view, setting, structure, symbolism, theme, tone, etc.
- Use strong and thorough evidence from the text to support your analysis.
- Organize your ideas in a cohesive and coherent manner.
- Maintain a formal style of writing.
- Follow the conventions of standard written English.

Outline:

Introduction:

- Introduce the novel (TAG) and a brief overview of the scene. This will be done in several sentences.
- Thesis should state both the central idea of the text and the literary element you will discuss.

Body Paragraph #1

- Topic Sentence
 - Introduces the central idea of the passage.
- Specific textual examples that show how the central idea is developed in the passage
 - Be sure to include AT LEAST ONE QUOTE from the passage in your paragraph.
- Clincher
 - Sums up how the central idea relates to the passage.

Body Paragraph #2

- Topic Sentence
 - Introduces the literary technique of the passage (only ONE is required).
- Specific textual examples and analysis of how the literary strategy is used in the passage
 - Be sure to quote the specific line of the literary technique in your paragraph.
- Clincher
 - Sums up how the literary technique develops the passage

Conclusion

- Restate central idea of the passage
- Sum up how the central idea is developed in the passage
- Sum up how the literary technique helps to develop the central idea
- Clincher
 - Make one final claim about the central idea of the passage that will leave the reader with something to think about.
