

WNB #2- LEAVING THE RESERVATION

Now that you have read several articles about the negatives to living on a reservation, why do you think people stay? What does it say about their culture? If you had to give up your freedom, your way of life, and everything you ever knew just to re-establish yourself in a new world, and learn a new way of doing things, could you do it? Could you leave your family, your life, and your heritage behind to make a better life for yourself?