

WNB # 5 - Juror's Journal

You are Juror 13, and have just arrived home after a full evening of deliberation with the other jury members. Describe this first day in the jury room as if you were writing a diary entry. Who stood out to you, and why did they stand out to you? Is there anyone you feel is similar to you and that you could develop a friendship with after? Why might you be similar (ideas, background)? Who is someone that is very different from you on the jury? What makes you different, and how will you show them tolerance?

Also, you are free to discuss the pieces of evidence discussed in the case that you have heard so far. What are your assumptions as to the defendant's innocence?
