

Name _____

October 1st- 5th Homework Sheet

Monday

Social Studies- have a fire drill at your home! Discuss your meeting place, and what to do in case of an emergency. Are your smoke detector's batteries up to date?

Math- Use a number line to add!

Reading- read your take home book, or a book from home, and discuss characters in the book

Tuesday

Math- part, part, whole

Reading- read your take home book, or a book from home, and discuss characters in the book

Wednesday

Math- draw pictures to add

Reading- read your take home book, or a book from home, and discuss characters in the book discuss

Thursday

Math- Game- WHAT DID I DO? Play with paperclips, pennies, or any small objects. To make the game more challenging, simply use bigger numbers.

Reading- read your take home book, or a book from home, and discuss characters in the book Share : Write one to three sentences sharing something you would like your teacher and friends to learn about you. You can tell about your weekend, something you love, something that makes you happy or sad (anything that feels important to you) .

- Spelling –Brainstorm words using this week’s pattern. Write 3 or 4 words for the patterns: words with the short /a/ sound. You can talk about these word families/words with the same ending sound anywhere! Come up with rhyming words in the car! Write words in the air! Write words in shaving cream in the tub! Have fun!

-at	-ad	-ag
cat	mad	bag

Go to <http://www.spellingcity.com/nancyfancypants/> for fun spelling games using our spelling rule of the week! Our list this week is SHORT A 😊

- High Frequency Words: trace each sight word 3 x's

eat	for	girl	got	get
eat	for	girl	got	get
eat	for	girl	got	get

Poem of the week:

Autumn is here

Sing a song of autumn,
with leaves all falling down.
Sing a song of harvest,
with colors gold and brown.

Days are getting shorter,
the nights are cool and clear.
It's almost time to hibernate,
until springtime is here!

Homework Packets are due the Monday after they come home 😊