

Teacher Expectations

- Let students know that education is valuable.
- Give encouragement and positive comments to students.
- Communicate with parents on a regular basis. Call, email or write with questions, concerns or positive thoughts.
- Send home classroom information and provide feedback on students' progress.
- Provide meaningful and engaging lessons and activities.
- Reinforce students' independent work habits, while offering academic guidance and instruction.
- Provide clear and predictable homework assignments. Supply a model and instruction for students about how to complete the planner each night.
- Recognize students' effort, responsibility and positive behavior.
- Assist students in keeping study areas at school (desk, folders, and materials) neat and organized.
- Support students academically, socially, and emotionally to help them achieve a greater level of success.
- Encourage students to read and write on a regular basis.
- Attend Parent Night, Parent Teacher conferences, and other important functions at school.
- Encourage each student to do his/her personal best.
- Respect and care for each student's individual needs.
