Parent Involvement

Language arts Intervention Services

2019-2020

Our parent involvement plan at Overlook Primary School is developed in partnership with multiple groups. Our Parent Teacher Association, our Building Leadership Team, parents of Title 1 students, and the faculty all help to form our overall parent involvement program.

All Students:

- Children borrow books on a daily basis to read with their families which are both at their current reading level and which require adult support.
- Parents are invited to a “meet and greet” with intervention teachers in the fall.
- Parents are invited to curriculum night to visit with classroom teachers in the fall.
- ENL teachers invite families to a “meet and greet” with participating families in the fall.
- Parents and students participate in PARP (Parents as Reading Partners).
- Families are invited to an evening performance night with a literacy connection.
- Teachers send home packets of information, activities, and ideas to families periodically.
- Parent conferences are held in December.
- Report cards are sent home three times a year.
- Teacher web-sites are accessible to families.
- Calendars and letter to families with literacy ideas are available to families on the website.
- Parents are invited to participate in All School Assemblies as well as other activities.
- Families are provided with free books to add to their home libraries during school events.
- Children have access to a monthly book swap.
- All students and staff members participate in our One School One Book program which provides a copy of a book that everyone reads together. This is made available in English and Spanish on our website as a read aloud.

Kindergarten:

- Entering kindergarten students receive a book at screening to read over the summer and a bag of materials to support literacy development.

Students Receiving Academic Intervention Services

- Families receive handouts of techniques about reading with their children at home. Children receive take-home books which go along with our Leveled Literacy Intervention Program (LLI). These books are kept at home.
- Intervention teachers send home progress reports with classroom report cards. Parents are also invited to schedule appointments with their child's AIS reading teacher before or after school.
- On a daily basis, students are loaned books to take home to read to his/her family.
- Yearly parent conferences are held with AIS teachers.
- Packets of book lists, ideas and activities are periodically sent home to families.
- Students are invited to visit during the summer to take out books from the building library.
